SCOTT CONFERRING PREPARES FOR WORST

There were few optimists to point out that in the end the Mexican minister of war must concede the point of the United States. A vast majority concluded that he was more likely to withdraw from the negotiations.

Activities of the American military men here, added to the situation.

All along the border, the word had gone out to the scattered detachments of the American army patrol to be on guard.

Hope was still entertained that the situation could be adjusted. Never the less the American conferees prepared for the worst. Late in the afternoon the excitement grew when General Geo. Bell, Jr., sent a detachment of troops into the city where he placed them as "a precaution" against any trouble that might arise among the large Mexican population. He explained that he had acted merely because of the tenacity of the situation.

A machine company was sheltered inside the red brick walls of the old El Paso court house, not far from the heart of the city, and down near the Union Depot, a short distance across the river from the blinking lights of Juarez, a company of infantry was stationed.

Three other companies of infantry, placed within easy distance of the Mexican quarter, which they surrounded, camped in the neighborhood of the stock yards.

When General Obregon went into the conference this evening he said he had a proposal to make to the American representatives. He intended to ask, he said, that a common border patrol should be stretched along the border. American troops guarding the American side and Mexican troops patrolling the Mexican side.

On his return to his private car in Juarez, after the conference, General Obregon made the following statement to the press:

"On the instructions of the First Chief, I have proposed a plan for the patrol of the frontier by troops of both countries. Each country under this arrangement would patrol its own side and cooperate with the other in running down and breaking up the outlaw bands who have committed a number of depredations lately. We are proceeding amicably in the conference. I should like to say for the benefit of the Yellow Press that I delivered no ultimatum tonight.

General Scott is understood to have said he would be glad to present the proposal to the Washington government.

SUFFRAGE ORGANIZER HOLDS GOOD MEETING IN WARREN DISTRICT

Mrs. E. St. Clair Thompson Finds Excellent Welcome in Warren District Among Local Women.

After holding two very enthusiastic meetings in Bisbee, one at the Y. W. C. A., yesterday afternoon, and one last evening at the Copper Queen Hotel, Mrs. E. St. Clair Thompson, southern field secretary and state organizer for Arizona for the Congressional Union for Women's Suffrage, leaves this morning for Douglas, where the balance of the county committee will be secured and the organization perfected.

Mrs. St. Clair has already stopped in Tombstone where two members of the county committee have been secured. Two have also been chosen to represent Bisbee and the balance of the committee will be selected at Douglas where a conference will shortly be held to perfect the organization of the Cochise county committee.

The state committee has been organized with Mrs. W. H. Sawtelle, wife of Judge W. H. Sawtelle, as chairman. Mrs. St. Clair has already organized committees in Pima, Yuma and Santa Cruz and is now working in Cochise. Before leaving the Northern route in the county will be thoroughly organized.

According to the visitor the idea in organizing the women in the suffrage states is to secure the fullest support for the passage, during the present term of congress, of the Susan B. Anthony amendment. On June 5, 6 and 7, a convention will be held in Chicago at which time a woman's party will be organized, the sole platform of which will be the enfranchisement of the women of America.

The party will work independent of all other parties and, once the object is obtained, will merge itself back into the old parties. Forty thousand women have already signed their intention of aiding the movement and the sponsors declare its effect will be to practically force the adoption of the Anthony amendment upon congress.

"Before I am through with Arizona," said Mrs. St. Clair last evening, "every voting precinct will be thoroughly organized. The suffrage states of the nation can crystallize the sentiment very materially in favor of the amendment and Arizona will do her share."

PAPAGOS CLASH WITH MEXICANS

Indians in Southern Arizona
Resist Mexican Cattlemen
Crossing Line.

TUCSON, May 9.—Trouble is threatening between Papago Indians and Mexicans along the Arizona border as the result of an impasse between Mexican and Indian cattlemen. Indians declare that the Mexicans have refused to allow them to cross into Mexico to round up cattle which have strayed from the American side.

The Indians retaliated by refusing to allow Mexicans to cross into Arizona to round up their stock. These reprisals are connected by some of the Indians with the killing of a well that was being bored in the Indian oasis camp. Indians have resolved to appeal to Washington and are represented as being determined to have their cattle. The Indian country adjoins Mexico.

LIMITED HOME RULE MAY BE SEEN FOR IRELAND

Concessions, Extent of Which is Unknown, Will Be Made to Island Thursday, Conscription May Also Apply.

(By Review Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 9.—Irish policies are again in the foreground as a result of the recent rising and the consequent bond of sentiment between John Redmond, the nationalist leader, and Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader. The conference of these leaders yesterday on the disarmament question and today's significant debate in the House of Commons on the possibility of bringing Ireland within the scope of the conscription bill have given this matter still importance and it looks as if Ireland's unfortunate condition might become the indirect means of adjusting in a manner satisfactory to all parties the difficult home rule problem, which has been hung up during the war.

It is understood that a manifesto to the Irish people has been agreed upon but the contents of the manifesto have been withheld until Thursday so as to enable its simultaneous publication throughout Ireland. Various rumors were current in the lobbies of parliament tonight concerning negotiations between the government and the Irish parties, but nothing is likely to be decided upon until after Premier Asquith's pronouncement on the Irish situation which is expected tomorrow.

WAR SUMMARY

(By Review Leased Wire)

The French and German forces fighting to the northwest of Verdun for the moment at least are deadlocked, the Germans being unable to advance further and French attempts to expell the invaders from captured positions being unavailing. To the east and northeast of Verdun where respectively violent infantry attacks and bombardments have characterized the recent fighting, only intermittent cannonading is going on.

The only infantry engagement reported anywhere along the French front was launched by the Germans against a French trench to the west of Hill 304. The French, however, brought into play their curtain of fire and the Germans were unable to dislodge them. The shelling by the Germans of the Russians at the Beaulieu bridgehead on the eastern battle line, which has been in progress for many days, still continues.

The Russians in Armenia, however, have put down with heavy casualties a stubborn Turkish attack and southward in the region of Mush driven the Ottoman forces from their defenses in a mountain chain. In addition the Russians operating westward from Bagdad have dislodged the Turks from fortified positions and driven them farther west.

The Goritz bridge head and the erection around San Martino in the Austro-Italian theatre have been heavily bombarded. At San Martino, Vienna asserted that the Italians suffered heavy losses through the explosion of Austrian mines.

(By Review Leased Wire)
MAZATLAN, May 9. (By radio to San Diego, Cal.)—The American consul here announced today that he had received several anonymous letters informing him that the consulate was to be blown up. The same communications contained warning to all Americans to leave Mexico within 48 hours. Twenty-three Americans from Mazatlan and immediate vicinity, and 65 others from interior points sailed from here yesterday on board the Pacific Mail steamer Newport for San Francisco. The United States gunboat Annapolis is here on patrol duty.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once. Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. (Advertisement.)
